THE FLYLEAF

Vol. VI, No. 4

Quarterly
October 1956

---

Extensive comment is superfluous on the financial record which follows. It is a record of which we may all be proud and which has immeasurably benefitted the Rice Institute and its Library.

The trend has been toward memorial gifts and away from unspecified contributions, while the annual total has remained essentially the same. This is a welcome development, for no memorials more fitting than those of books or of library equipment could be found. The gifts of the Friends remain what they have always been, the means by which the Library obtains items beyond the bread-and-butter classification, items which are necessary if the Fondren is to be a true research institution, but items for which we need sponsors if we are to get them.
